Glenwood Systems, LLC Launches New Website – www.GlaceComplete.com

Waterbury, CT Monday January 12, 2009 --- Glenwood Systems LLC announces the launch of their new website www.GlaceComplete.com . The new website is designed to introduce the Physician marketplace to Glenwood Systems and the company's turbo-charged practice management/billing system GlaceComplete^{SM} as well as provide the physician with current relevant industry information.

The new website features information about the history of Glenwood System, the company's birth in a physician's office, the GlaceComplete (EMR + Assisted Billing) and GlaceEMR (electronics medical records software) products and a Resource Center providing current information important to the Physician and their practice management.

"We are very excited about the next generation of our website," said Nat Loganathan, Founder and CEO Glenwood Systems located in Waterbury, CT. "This is the next logical step as we continue our major initiative to expand the use of the GlaceComplete^{sm} and GlaceEMR^{sm} electronic administrative solutions with healthcare providers."

"The new site is a wonderful destination for the Physician wanting to focus on patient medicine rather than accounting or IT." said Ron Flormann, Chief Commercial Officer at Glenwood Systems "The GlaceComplete system was designed by Glenwood in the physician's office for the physician. Glenwood's commitment to improving the practice / patient experience has resulted in improved safety and workflow as well as cost reduction and increased physician practice revenue. Today we have clients collecting at least a 99% of contracted rates using the Glenwood system."

Glenwood Systems is best known for the GlaceEMR^{sm} and GlaceComplete^{sm} products designed to deliver a complete platform of software and services that encompass all aspects of clinical data management.

Glenwood Systems LLC is a privately owned company headquartered in Waterbury, CT with offices in Dayton Ohio, Tampa FL and Orange CA.
